One Letter of Nomination must be submitted for each nominee. This can be uploaded below, Emailed, mailed or hand delivered to the Greater Claremont Chamber of Commerce 24 Opera House Sq. Suite 407 Claremont, NH 03743

Some things to consider when writing a letter of nomination:

- Describe what the business does, its primary activity in the business community and how it participates as a charitable partner in the community.
- Demonstrate how the nonprofit organization collaborates with other nonprofit organizations and/or businesses in the community.
- Summarize the nominee's involvement with civic organizations, community service groups, young professional networks and/or fraternal societies on independent volunteering.
- Provide a summary of the nominee's contributions to his/her company's industry. This may include honors, awards, certifications and involvement in professional organizations.
- How has this nominee had a positive impact on our Community? What are their plans to continue to have a lasting positive impact on the Greater Claremont Community?
